

Status of Fathers Is Yet Unknown

Regulations Are Changed
Regarding Induction of Pre-Pearl Harbor Fathers

"What about the induction of fathers?" is the question most heard by Selective Service boards these days.

No one knows the answer, and there is little use of predicting. Last week local boards were ordered to get fathers ready for induction starting October 1. By the end of the week the order had been changed.

The Randall County Selective Service board is meeting this afternoon with the view of clearing men for the call of next Thursday, and making a study of the new regulations. Since there is apparently no call on the local board for September, some action regarding the induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers will likely be taken today. The first step to be taken is sending new questionnaires to all men of this class in order to get new information on file regarding their families and their present vocations.

The local board has received back from the District Appeals Board the last of seven appeals which were made by married men without children. The appeals board sustained the local board on all of the classifications, and all but one of these men will be sent to the induction station next Thursday. The local board has had more appeals from this group of men than ever before since Selective Service was started. It is evident that many appeals will be taken when it becomes necessary to start the induction of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers.

With several boys who have recently become 18 years of age ready for induction, it is evident now that practically the full quota of 29 men will be sent to the induction station at Lubbock next Thursday.

Dr. Leo Dufloot Finishes Course; Ensign in Navy

Leo Dufloot has completed his work in the University of Texas Medical College at Galveston. Having passed the Texas State Board he is now a Doctor, as well as an Ensign in the Medical Corps of the Navy.

Dr. Dufloot is on duty at the John Sealy Hospital in Galveston as X-Ray Technician until the first of October when he goes to the Parkland Hospital at Dallas to begin his work as interne. He is subject to call of the Navy for active service.

Dr. Dufloot is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dufloot of this city.

Delegates to Go to State H. D. Meeting in Dallas

Mrs. Jack Baker, Wildorado; Mrs. Clarence Beckman, Umparger, and Mrs. R. T. Normand, Western Avenue home demonstration club, will leave for Dallas Monday to attend the state convention of the Texas Home Demonstration Association, which will be in session August 17, 18 and 19 at the Baker hotel.

Daughter of F. C. Cole Died Monday Home in California

Mrs. Vivian Bowen died Monday at the family home in Santa Ana, Calif. The funeral was held yesterday, with burial in that city.

Surviving is her husband, Edward Bowen, and one daughter; her father, F. C. Cole, of this city, and two brothers, Levi W. and James Cole, both of Canyon.

Mr. Bowen is employed by the Santa Fe and the family lived in Canyon for four years.

Mrs. Bowen had been in poor health for several years.

VISITORS HERE THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aduddell and family of Stratford, Mrs. Roy Worley of Ellington Field, Mrs. Wright Davis and family of Stratford, Mrs. Josie Roberts of Stratford, Mr. and Mrs. John Aduddell and family of Bula, Mrs. Cleo Aduddell and family of Bula, and Miss Hope Baldwin of Amarillo were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Hill and family Thursday. They were also visiting with Pfc. Conn L. Roberts and Pfc. Dan E. Murray of San Diego who were home on leave from the United States Marines.

STORK SPECIAL

A daughter was born to Rev. and Mrs. Al Dorsett at the Herman Hospital in Houston, August 1. She has been named, Rosemary, and weighed 8 pounds, 15 ounces. Rev. Dorsett was former pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Canyon.

Eugene Worley to Speak to Citizens 9 p. m. August 19

CONGRESSMAN WORLEY

Congressman Eugene Worley will spend next Thursday afternoon in Canyon and will speak at the bandstand at 9 o'clock Thursday night.

Congressman Worley is home during the recess of Congress and is visiting every county of his district in order to find out what the people are thinking of the conduct of the war and of domestic problems.

Mr. Worley has informed the News that he will arrive in Canyon about the middle of the afternoon in order to visit with the people for a few hours before he speaks at 9 o'clock.

Tax Rate Lower For Year 1943

State Cuts Rate But
County Tax Rate Same;
Rolls Ready October 1

Randall county tax payers will have a smaller County and State tax bill this year than for 1942.

This was brought about by a reduction of the state tax rate from 75 cents on the $100 valuation in 1942 to 47 cents for this year.

The tax rate for Randall county will remain 92 cents on the $100 valuation.

The office of M. E. Cantrell is working on the 1943 tax roll, which will be ready to start collection of taxes on October 1.

Boys Urged Not to Shoot Song Birds, Property

Boys with air rifles are reported to be killing useful birds in various parts of Canyon, and are said to be breaking windows in homes and churches.

No one objects to the boys killing sparrows, but boys are cautioned that mocking birds, robins, and other useful birds should not be molested.

However, various citizens report that some boys have become careless in shooting rifles and citizens believe that some one will be seriously injured by these rifles if this promiscuous shooting continues.

Boys are urged to spare the useful birds, not shoot at buildings, and never shoot in the direction of people.

Mrs. Neva Dahlgren Died Sunday; Former Resident of Canyon

Mrs. Neva Dahlgren died Sunday at her home in Los Angeles, Calif., from a heart attack. She will be remembered in Canyon as Neva Reynolds, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds. The family moved from Canyon to California in 1920.

Surviving is one son, and two brothers, Clifford and Penon Reynolds, all of whom live in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Dahlgren was in Canyon when her aunt, Mrs. Oscar Hunt, died.

Call Made For More Seabees

The Navy is calling for the enlistment of men in the Seabees. Men 18 to 50 with construction experience are needed.

Recruiting officers will be at the post office building Aug. 14-15 to examine and certify men. Applicants between 18 and 38 must have a 1-A or 3-A Selective Service classification.

ARM BROKEN IN FALL

Mrs. Jessie R. Rusk had her left arm broken last week when she fell on the steps of the B. T. Johnson home.

Water Supply Is Maintained

Use of College Water
Plant at Night Keeping
Up City's Water Supply

Canyon citizens are using a record amount of water daily, about 700,000 gallons. Hot, dry weather causes this unusual amount of water to be used.

The supply is being kept up by the use of the College plant every night. With one of the city wells still under normal capacity, it is necessary to use the College plant to keep the tanks filled.

According to city officials there is no danger of a water shortage under the present arrangement. However citizens are warned not to waste water, but to keep gardens, lawns and trees sufficiently watered during the critical period of hot weather.

Farmers Asked to Cut Grass Along the Country Roads

County Commissioner G. B. Heath stated yesterday that he is urging farmers in precinct one to cut Johnson grass along the country roads if they wish hay. Several farmers have already cut a large amount of this hay.

The mowing machine for this precinct has broken down and there is no chance to get repairs for several weeks. Mr. Heath states that it will be impossible for him to cut this grass and encourages farmers who want Johnson grass for hay to cut the grass along the country roads of his precinct.

Third War Bond Drive To Start on September 9

No August quota of War Bonds has been received by County Chairman R. H. Wright. Sales continue daily, and amounted to $9,362 from August 1 to 10.

Mr. Wright states that the Third War Loan Drive has been set to start September 9 and to continue through the month.

For the Second War Loan Drive held in April of this year Randall county was assigned a non-bank quota of $93,000. No advice has been received as to the amount of the quota for the Third War Loan Drive. Announcement of this quota will probably be possible before the drive starts on September 9.

Pfc. and Mrs. C. N. Tippery, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAttee and Billy spent the week-end in Carlsbad, Clovis and Lovington.

Crime Wave Threatens Nation

Citizens Warned of Children Who Running at Large

The Nation is heading for a revolutionary crisis which seriously endangers the American way of life. Col. Homer Garrison, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, declared Tuesday at Detroit, Michigan, in a nationwide broadcast.

He predicted an unprecedented crime wave and "a nation gone wild" in search of new pleasures and new freedoms after the war ends.

"Our economic and governmental structures may undergo profound changes," he said. Time-honored customs which have held our families and communities together will be thrown unceremoniously into the discard. This chaos will threaten the very foundations of our civilization.

As a result of the nervous strain and the confusion of war, "the moral standards of our adult population are crashing down. With little or no parental supervision, and with temptation on every side, much of our youth is running wild. Crime is increasing rapidly. Youthful gangs have grown so vicious and so bold in some of our larger cities that the police even now can hardly control them.

"We of the police profession believe that our nation is headed for a crime wave far bloodier and costlier than that of the Capone-Dillinger era. . . . Your police officers expect strikes and riots. . . . involving racial minority groups.

"Crime will be only a part of this Twentieth Century Revolution. . . . We shall see something more startling than companionate marriage, the quick and easy divorce laws, the hip flask, knee-length skirts, and high-speed automobiles which grew out of the last war.

Many Recipes Given to News

New Book Will Have Large Variety of the Favorite Recipes

Recipes for the new cook book have been pouring into The News office this week. The News is very grateful for the large number which have been received, and the interest which has been shown in the new book by the women of Randall county.

The News last week announced that the dead line on recipes would be today. This rule will be waived a little in order that those who have not mailed in or brought to The News office their favorite recipes may do so. However, it is urgently requested that all recipes be at The News office not later than Saturday.

Most of the recipes which have been received are already set in type, and will be ready for printing as soon as they may be classified and arranged for printing.

Mercury Stands at High Point During the Week

Plenty of hot weather continues this week. The mercury rose to 102 degrees Sunday; 105 on Monday; 104 Tuesday.

The nights have also been hot, with very little breeze.

No sign of moisture this week, and row crops are beginning to suffer from the drought and hot weather. Unless rain is received this week the row crops will suffer very greatly. Owing to the large number of cattle in the county, a good feed crop would be as valuable this year as a wheat crop.

Rev. Robert Jones to Preach Sunday Night At Union Services

The weekly union services of the Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist Churches will be held Sunday night at the Methodist Church.

Rev. Robert W. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will preach. The service was held last Sunday night at the Christian Church, with Rev. C. C. Armstrong of the Methodist Church preaching the sermon.

Gene Elo Died In Abilene Sunday

Gene Elo, former Canyon citizen, died in Abilene Sunday of a heart attack.

Gene was well known in Canyon. He was a telegraph operator for the Santa Fe while attending West Texas State. He became editor of The Prairie during his senior year, and was considered an outstanding young newspaper man.

After leaving college he worked on the Amarillo Globe-News before taking the position of advertising manager of the West Texas Utilities Company with headquarters at Abilene.

District Meeting of H. D. County Agents

Miss Frances Wilroy, County Home Demonstration Agent, will attend district meetings in the Herring hotel in Amarillo Friday and Saturday.

J. F. Rasborough, horticulturist from College Station, will lead a discussion on fall gardens.

Mrs. Bernice Clayton, home improvement specialist, will give a demonstration on canning and re-seating chairs with rush and other materials.

George Adams, vice director and state agent, will be present.

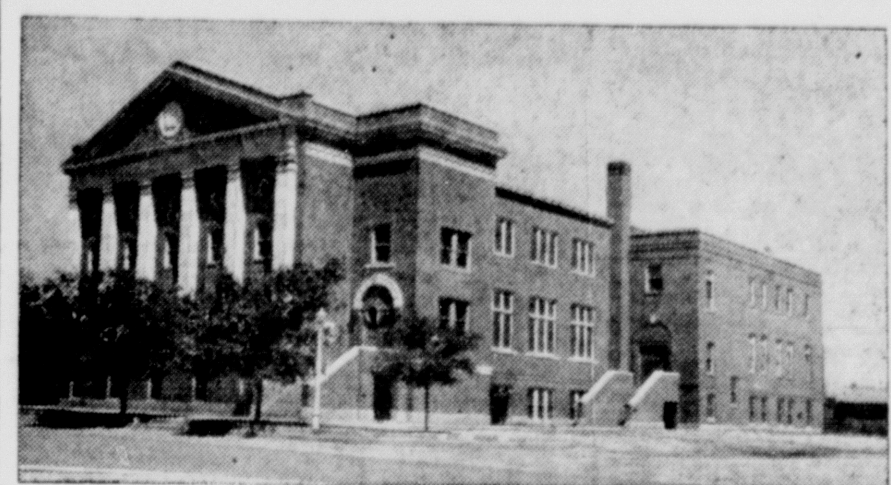

Miss Doris Leggett and Knox Parr, district agents will also be present.

Lieut. Glen Boland Is Here on Visit

Lieut. and Mrs. Glen Boland are here visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Boland. They will leave Saturday and Lieut. Boland will attend school in North Carolina.

Lieut. Boland is a finance officer. He has been in the army for 9 years, and for the past two years has been stationed in Alaska.

Baptist Church Freed of Debt Sunday

Debt Is Paid Baptist Church

Local Congregation Sets
Aside Day Sunday to Clear
Up Old Debt Against Church

The First Baptist Church of Canyon has had a debt since the beginning of their building, seventeen years ago, and within the last eleven months voluntary gifts have reduced the amount until it has vanished. The debt a year ago was over seven thousand dollars and it had been reduced by gifts all during the year.

Last Sunday was set aside as "Debt Fund Day" and all offerings of the day were given to the building fund. The congregation needed $1,850.00 to finish paying the mortgage, but the voluntary gifts during the day were $2,583.06, with $1,743.00 of it coming through the Sunday School. No special collection was taken. The money was either mailed to the church or dropped on the plates at the preaching hour.

As soon as the transaction can be completed the mortgage and note will be obtained from the holder in Dallas. U. S. Government bonds bought in Canyon will be exchanged for the mortgage.

The over-plus offering will be used to purchase bonds for use on a pastor's home after the war. Certain other work will be done on the building as materials can be obtained and money is available. The church now owns nine lots at its building site, and all are clear of debt.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Max L. Dysart and Margaret E. Marshman, August 7.

Don Savage Now Captain and Is a New Father

It is now Captain Don E. Savage, head of the aerial map division at Lowery Field, Colo. The promotion came to Captain Savage on July 27. He has been in the service for two years. Captain Savage is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Savage of this city.

On July 29 a daughter was born to Capt. and Mrs. Savage at Denver.

Caught on Theft and Charged With Forging Checks

Nath Lewis and Milton Vest of Brownfield are in jail as the result of theft and check forging charges.

The boys received a fine of $20 and sentence to six months in jail because of theft here last week.

Not satisfied with this job the boys passed forged checks. They were caught as they were getting ready to leave town.

The case of forgery will come before the grand jury when district court meets in September.

RETURNED TO SAN DIEGO

Pfc. Conn L. Roberts and Pfc. Dan E. Murray left Saturday night for San Diego, where they returned to their station with the United States Marine Corps. They have spent their 10-day furlough here in the home of Pfc. Roberts' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Hill.

Labor Situation Holds Up Cutting

Flies Are Spreading
Infantile Paralysis Is
Report of Authorities

Weed cutting is progressing very slowly in Canyon states Mayor W. A. Warren. The lack of labor is the greatest handicap of the city in keeping the campaign underway.

One mowing machine is being used as rapidly as possible, but it is almost impossible to hire men with hoes in order to cut weeds which cannot be reached by the machine.

No case of infantile paralysis has developed here, although the disease is spreading in other towns both to the north and south of Canyon.

The State Health Department states that flies are responsible for the spread of the disease. Citizens are urged to eliminate all breeding places of flies as the best guaranty that the disease will not spread should any case be developed in Canyon.

Spraying garbage cans with a creosote solution, and also spraying chicken houses and lots, as well as cow pens with this solution will eliminate many breeding places for flies.

Inspections by the City Health Officer here have been started of cafes, food stores, drug stores and alleys around the square. Those who keep a cow or hog within the city limits are required to keep their lots cleaned up and use the spray frequently.

The fact that Canyon has not yet had a case of infantile paralysis is no sign that it will not break out here unless every citizen does his part in making these control measures 100% effective.

Baby Drowned in Water Tank Home Of Grandfather

Dallas Gayland Underdown, 17 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Underdown, was drowned Monday noon in a tank at the home of her grandfather, O. D. Bragg. Artificial respiration was applied, but failed to revive the child.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at five o'clock at the Bragg home, arrangements being in charge of the Griggs-Thompson Funeral home.

Surviving are the parents; O. D. Bragg, a grandfather; Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Underdown of Santa Monica, Calif., the other grandparents of the child.

Roger Smith Is Killed in Accident Body to Borger

Pvt. Roger E. Smith was killed last week at Fort Lewis, Wash., in the accidental discharge of a gun. The body is being brought to Borger for interment.

Survivors are: his wife, Mrs. Roger E. Smith of Borger; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Smith of Dalhart; brother, Esker Smith of Dalhart; sister, Mrs. Harold Byars of Canyon.

The deceased was well known here where he had made his home as a student in school.

A. M. Smith Died Saturday at Vernon; Father of Mrs. Sheffy

A. M. Smith, 81, died Saturday at a hospital in Vernon. The funeral was held Monday morning at the Methodist Church in Plainview where he had been a member and official for many years. Burial was in the Plainview Cemetery by the side of his wife who died June 4, 1922.

Mr. Smith was well known in Canyon, where he has visited in the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, during past years. An other daughter, Mrs. C. H. Dillehay, lives at Vernon, with whom he was visiting when he became ill. Two sons survive, Owen and Elma Smith.

RESIGNS FROM WACS

Mrs. Dan Gerald is home from Datona Beach, Florida. She has been given an honorable discharge from WACS. She will be remembered as the former Miss Mabel Schmitz.

RECEIVES DISCHARGE

Marvin Wells Davenport was discharged from the army at Camp Walters last week because of physical disabilities. He was inducted into the army only a few weeks ago.

Vice President Wallace has jumped onto the terrible corporations of this country and charge they are trying to defeat the policy of the administration. Since the President felt that it was necessary to deprive Mr. Wallace of some of his powers, we wonder if Mr. Wallace is not doing a considerable amount of spouting off in order to keep himself before the public. His charge against corporations is ridiculous. We do not know how many corporations exist in these United States, but right here in Canyon more than a dozen firms are doing business as corporations. We suspect that fully that number exists in every other town in the nation of this size. In cities like Amarillo there are probably several thousand corporations. Some of these corporations may be bad, but to condemn the whole number is childish. Mr. Wallace condemns the policy of scarcity, of which he was the principal author and perpetrator only a few years ago when he killed cattle and hogs and plowed up crops. Corporations no doubt have tried to regulate the market according to the needs of the people, but this is the same thing which Wallace advocated. Without the great corporations of America, we would never have been able to get our war production in high gear as we have in the past 20 months. Maybe since the President has relieved Wallace of his international planning job, the Vice President feels that he must make some speeches in order to win the war.

A speaker in Canyon last week advised that America could not be expected to play Santa Claus to the nations of the world after this war. Yet that is just what is expected to us. Our government has played Santa Claus to such a large percentage of our own citizens during past years that the world knows all about it, and expects the same thing for themselves. Vice President Wallace has been telling our friends how we are going to make all of them equal to us following the war. Some of these nations actually believe this fairy tale. As a matter of cold fact on a hot day, we are getting ourselves in an uncomfortable position as to the balance of the world in the glib promises which are being made by many Washington officials. Realistic Winston Churchill is allowing our administration to do all the talking and all the promising. Churchill knows that when the fighting is over, Britain will be seated at the peace table to hold her Empire, and allow us to do all the freehanding that we want. Our freehanding to Indians and others here at home has not raised their standards a whole of a lot. We are fearful that the same will be true of our proposed freehanding in scores of other countries where the status of civilization is not any higher than among some who expect to be recipients of our gifts. A lot of the freehanders will not be doing business in Washington when the shooting stops—we hope.

We say positively that he is not a "yellow skunk!" We say that because we know why he is not in the army, and know what he is doing at home. We are having more instances regarding which we commented in this column a few weeks ago. We objected when General Hershey, head of Selective Service, advised people to shame young men into the armed forces rather than allow them to stay on the jobs which his own department have set up as essential to the conduct of the war. If you know of cases where young men are evading military service through some flimsy excuse, by all means report the case to the Selective Service Board. But please do not call your neighbor "a yellow skunk" just because you think he should be in the army, and the regulations provides that he shall stay at home. Military slackers should be weeded out, and every local board is willing to do its job of weeding out. But they must have facts, rather than mere suspicion before they can send a man to the army who has been classed as a necessary man. Citizens are advised to help Selective Service by giving facts, rather than pestering these boards with a lot of harsh names of men who have legitimate reasons for not being in the army.

Old Age Assistance again holds the spotlight down at Austin. A legislative committee held hearings and agreed that the director of this department and two members should be fired. The whole problem is the matter of lack of money to pay the pensioners all that they need, and all that the legislators think they deserve. This will always be the case, regardless of the size of the checks which are distributed monthly. The legislature says that this commission is spending too much money for salaries and overhead expenses, especially in hiring investigators; the federal government says that federal aid will be withdrawn unless more investigators are hired and those on the rolls checked more often. The legislators want to fire those in charge for not being able to increase the checks, and thus we have a row, which will be carried forward to the next session of the legislature, and succeeding session of the legislature. The problem will never be settled to suit everyone.

PUSHING THINGS A LITTLE

An old lady had a parrot that was always swearing. She could stand this every day but Sunday, so she covered the cage every Sunday. One Monday the woman saw her preacher coming to call, so she quickly covered the cage. As the preacher entered the parrot said: "This has been a blankety-blank short week!"

FIRE!

Sentry: "Who goes there?"
Major: "Major Jones."
Sentry: "I can't let you proceed without the password, sir."
Major: "Drat it, man, I've forgotten it. You know me well enough."
Sentry: "Must have the password."
Voice from guardhouse: "Don't stand there arguing all night; shoot him."

MARKED MAN

"Darling, as I kissed you then, love was born."
That's wonderful, dear. But wipe that birthmark off your lips before we go in."
"To those—who want to taste a real pleasure in life, let us recommend giving something away to someone—even tho it be just a word of cheer."

Governor Coke Stevenson had a plan to solve the deficit of the general fund without resorting to a state bond issue, as the new constitutional amendment provides. His plan was to call a special session of the legislature, and transfer the rural school aid appropriation from the general fund to the school fund. This would make possible the reduction of the deficit of the general fund about $7,500,000 annually. Teachers of the state objected to the transfer. The state apportionment is the only money paid out of the school fund. If the legislature tacked the rural aid bill to the school fund now, there was no assurance that other sessions of the legislature would not tack other appropriations to this fund. The general state fund is the only state fund in deficit. While this deficit is being reduced gradually, about the only way it may be eliminated is by increasing the state rate for this fund. There are too many demands on the general fund to successfully maintain this fund on a 35 cent rate. But this would require a constitutional amendment, and such an amendment would be very unpopular with the people.

Several months ago The News called attention to the fact that the executive branch of government was usurping the legislative authority. We have become a nation of bureaus and these bureaus have taken over the power to make rules which are laws within themselves. A member of the Congress is authority for the statement that in the past ten years the executive branch of the government has issued nearly 4,000 executive orders—almost as many orders as all the laws passed by the Congress in that period. The regulations resulting from these fill twenty fat volumes. . . . "These orders were not publicly debated or voted on by the people's representatives; they were prepared in secret by 110 order-issuing agencies of the executive government. They became laws which Congress never saw until they were published," he pointedly remarks. . . . "Is this representative democracy?" he asks, and we echo the question. . . . He's a Democratic Senator, Joseph C. O'Mahoney.

Washington correspondents are watching with interest the merry little fight between Mrs. Roosevelt and Harry Hopkins. Mrs. Roosevelt sold the President on Hopkins while FDR was Governor of New York. Hopkins proved such a valuable listening post for FDR that he was taken to Washington and lived in the White House until his recent marriage. According to reporters, Hopkins has undermined the influence of Mrs. Roosevelt on numerous occasions and finally had to move out of the White House with his new wife and her bunch of poodles. The President is not overlooking any bets when it comes to keeping solid with the voters, and he feels that Harry Hopkins is the man who can help him most. Born and reared in politics, office holding is the easiest thing in the world for FDR, and he will run for a fourth term unless the war is over and peace is pretty well an established fact.

Congressman Eugene Worley picked himself a good hot job in coming home during the vacation of Congress. He could have been comfortable by going to the mountains and getting some rest, but he is back among the people of his district, talking things over with them. He will be in Canyon next Thursday. While he is here, he wants an expression from the citizens as to what is on their minds. That is the only way by which a Congressman may keep up with the problems of his district. Mr. Worley reads all of the newspapers of his district at his office in Washington, but even so, he may not have caught the trend of thinking of the people, as he hopes to do on this visit. So while Mr. Worley is in Canyon, see him, and talk with him if you have information which you think is vital to him.

Russia is not satisfied because the United Nations have not opened a second front. Russia has held the huge Hitler war machine and is now beginning to throw it back. The clamor for a second front started in Moscow, was taken up in London, and this week we hear demands for it in Washington. One thing is sure and certain: When we do open the second front it will be with the assurance that men and materials will be ready to take and hold the front in spite of the terrible loss which we may be forced to sustain against Hitler's fortress. Softening up Germans with bombs is the prelude to the real invasion.

Last week we were going to draft pre-Pearl Harbor dads by October 1. This week no one knows much about when dad is going to quit his civilian job and shoulder a gun. The Newsman advised a score or more of young fathers last week not to get excited about these orders. We felt certain that they would be changed, and sure enough they were changed within a few days. Until there exists an acute shortage of material for soldiers, we are opposed to the drafting of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers, especially those who are engaged in useful vocations. We shall see what we shall see.

State health officials state that flies are the chief cause for the spread of infantile paralysis. With the disease on both the north and south of Canyon, every citizen should be sufficiently alarmed to do some real cleaning up, and getting rid of the flies. This cannot be accomplished without cutting weeds, cleaning up rubbish and garbage, and thus destroying the breeding places for flies. Infantile paralysis in Canyon would cause a great financial loss by keeping people from moving here this fall for school. Let's do something right now about cleaning up.

Last week was one of good news so far as the war is concerned. But it must be kept in mind that so far we have not penetrated Hitler's European fortress; the Russians still have to push the Germans back hundreds of miles to get them out of Russia; that we have won back only a very tiny speck of the empire Japan has wrest from the United Nations. A careful study of the maps shows that a tremendous job is ahead of it. This is no time for civilians to let down on their job of helping win the war.

Honorary Degree Given Rayburn

Douglas Chandor's Portrait of Speaker Sam Rayburn Unveiled at Homecoming

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn was honored last Friday when the honorary degree, Doctor of Laws was conferred upon him by East Texas State Teachers College, his alma mater.

In his speech before the presentation of the degree upon him, Speaker Rayburn described home-front critics as "our saboteurs of the spirit—the Grumblers." He defended the price control program and pointed to the success of American armies in the field as best proof that the administration's policies are sound.

Rayburn graduated in 1903 from what was then known as the Mayo or East Texas Normal. He worked his way through serving as janitor and bell ringer.

One of the principal parts of the program was the unveiling of the portrait of the Speaker which was painted by Douglas Chandor, an eminent British-born portrait painter, who has painted over 300 portraits of prominent people including, among other, President Hoover and his entire cabinet and President Franklin D. Roosevelt and members of his family. The portrait of Speaker Rayburn was presented to the college by the Class of 1940.

Other speakers at the Homecoming Program were the Hon. Wright Patman, Hon. Fritz Lanham, Hon. R. L. Thomas, Major General Richard Donovan, AUS Commanding General, Eighth Service Command, Dr. Sam H. Whitley and Col. J. E. Josey. President J. A. Hill assisted in the presentation ceremony, placing the cap on Speaker Rayburn.

A colorful and distinctive note was added to the program when Col. Oveeta Culp Hobby, commander of the WAC, administered the Army oath to some 400 members of the corps, who thus lost their auxiliary classification and became a part of the Army.

PROOF

There was an absent-minded Sunday School teacher with whom the boys of the class liked to have fun. One day when the boys knew that their teacher was to read a certain passage from the Bible, they pasted together the connecting pages.

The teacher came into the room and began to read. When he got to the bottom of the page he read: "When Noah was 120 years old he took unto himself a wife who was"—then he turned the page—"140 cubits long, 40 cubits wide, built of gopher wood, and covered with pitch inside and out."

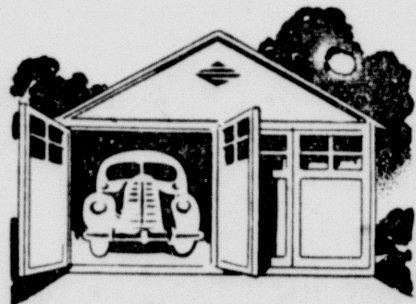

The teacher looked puzzled for a moment, re-read the passage, and then said: "Boys, this is the first time I have come across this passage in the Bible, but I am ready to accept it as evidence of the assertion that we are fearfully and wonderfully made."

HE LOOKED IT

The colored soldier had been peeling potatoes until his hands ached. Turning to a fellow K. P. he said: "What d'you suppose dat sergeant mean when he call us K. P.?" "Ah dunno," replied his co-worker. "But from de look on his face, Ah thinks he meant 'Keep Peelin.'"

HITLER RAVES ON

"You Germans have learned fanaticism from me," declares Hitler. "Accept my assurance that the same fanaticism still inspires me and that it will never leave me." Which, translated, means: "I'm nuts, and proud of it!"

Do you know a fellow like Joe?

JOE'S MY KID BROTHER. We've always stuck together and I've sort of watched out for him these last few years.

Well, Joe's in Africa now. His wife gets her allotment from him, and I guess when that's taken out of his check he doesn't have much left. Privates don't get paid much you know.

I figure this way. Here I am, making more money than I ever did before. You bet I work for it! But Joe's working hard too . . . and not just from 7 to 5, either.

We've been taking 10 percent out of my check every week for War Bonds . . . they're going to come in mighty handy when the War's over, we figure. But I got to thinking about Joe. What's he going to have after the War?

So we talked it over, my wife and I. We think Joe should get a cut of the bigger money, too. So now I'm buying an extra bond every month—in Joe's name.

Maybe you've got somebody in the War, too. If you have, couldn't you squeeze out an extra bond now and then, for your "Joe"?

Chaplain Long To Preach At Baptist Church

Chaplain Long of Amarillo Field, whose family lives in Canyon, will preach at the First Baptist Church in Canyon Sunday evening, August 15th, at 8:15. At the morning hour Claude White will preach. Sunday School will be at 9:45 and Training Union at 7:15.

Dr. Roy L. Johnson is holding a revival meeting at the First Baptist Church in Littlefield.

No divided nation can be a victorious nation. United we stand, divided we fall is as true today as when it was first uttered in 1776. —Nation's Business.

"See You in Manila"

FILIPINO FIGHTING SPIRIT, immortalized on Bataan, now sails the seven seas. These photos, released by the U. S. Navy, show the officers and men of a Philippine merchant ship which, since Pearl Harbor, has carried war materials for the United Nations through 160,000 miles of sub-infested waters in the Atlantic and Pacific. Above, the flag of the Philippine Commonwealth flies beside the Stars and Stripes, symbolizing the cooperation between the two nations and the fighting spirit of the Filipino people, 20,000 of whom fought and fell on Bataan and other Philippine battlefields.

THOMPSON'S

IMETA TO ALLCA THE OPSCA

A young lady and her aunt, returning home from work on pay day, were relieved of their money by a stick-up man. The young lady, rushing over to a policeman, exclaimed, "I've been robbed of my pay and my aunt's pay!" "Cut out the pig Latin and tell me what happened," the copper ordered.

HARD LUCK

A man walked reluctantly into a hat shop. "I've just lost a bet," he said, "and I want to buy a soft hat." "This is the softest we have," said the assistant. The customer gazed at it speculatively. "What I want," he said wistfully, "is something a little more tender. I've got to eat it."

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

BOYCE HOUSE

Michael Angelo said, "Genius is the capacity for taking infinite pains." But the paradox-loving Bernard Shaw said, "Genius is the infinite capacity for giving pain." And Edison declared, "Genius is 10 per cent inspiration and 90 per cent perspiration."

Found this in a Texas home town weekly:

"Do you think the radio will ever take the place of newspapers?" "No; for one thing, you can't swat flies with a radio."

San Angelo is not surpassed by any Texas city in its pronounced personality. Your columnist has visited San Angelo nearly 50 times but I am always thrilled anew by the sight of the big, white hats, the sound of the boot heels on the concrete and the feel of the brisk breeze sweeping across the wide main street. The city and its environs are richly endowed with scenery—two mountains, three rivers and Blondy Cross, the sports writer.

If you are an old-time Texas League fan, you remember "Bad News" Jim Galloway, who used to bust fences when he was starring with Dallas and Wichita Falls. I see him every once in a while—he has an important position with one of the state departments. Everybody thinks he got his nickname from the fact that when he came to bat, it was "bad news" for the pitcher. But a friend says it really started before Galloway ever began playing baseball.

He had a job away from home (according to the story) and, being homesick, he had a friend to send

Wayne Byars Paid Visit to Canyon Boys in Africa

Wayne Byars writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byars, that he has visited with Canyon boys in North Africa. He found his brother-in-law, Don Jerman of Amarillo, who is also with the American troops.

His letter follows:

Am going to attempt to write you a line or two. I doubt if you can read it, as I am not feeling at all well. I got back about a week ago from seeing Don. Sure had a good time. I did not see him first, but I saw Bill Bewley, Jimmy Carr, Joe Gill, Howard Hutchinson, Joe Prichard, Boots McBroom, and four or five other Canyon boys but I can't call their names right at the time. Sure had a hard time tracing them down but after 1500 miles I finally found them, but it was not so bad, because I was able to fly all the way, and a friend of Don's flew back to my home base with me. Just thought I would let you know I found him.

Grainger To Open Artist Series Here October 7

Percy Grainger, world famous pianist, assisted by Robert Louis Barron, violinist and conductor of the college orchestra and the Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra, will appear here in concert on Thursday evening, Oct. 7. An added feature will be a short talk by Mr. Grainger on Australia.

Mr. Grainger appeared last season as guest artist with the Amarillo Philharmonic Orchestra, and was received enthusiastically. He expressed much interest in the progress of music in this section and agreed to return to open the artist series at West Texas State.

Mr. Barron and Mr. Grainger will perform the celebrated Cesar Franck sonata for violin and piano.

Visitors in the Ullman Hunter and family home Saturday and Sunday week ago were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berry of Eaglesville, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Caco-nagher of Hereford; Cpl. and Mrs. Harvard Bishop of Flomot. Mrs. W. A. Hunter of Hereford visited with them Monday and Tuesday.

China Relief Is Being Sent Every Month From USA

During the first six months of 1943, United China Relief forwarded to China, for war relief there, $3,651,683.23, Dr. H. A. Brown, chairman of the Randall County United China Relief Committee, announces. This is $378,161.73 more than was sent during the last six months of 1942, and $1,828,845.40 more than during the first six months of 1942. The money is transmitted by radio through the Bank of China.

It is believed that these gifts represent the largest sum of money transmitted for relief to any of our allies during any six months period since the beginning of the war.

In cooperation with the National War Fund, United China Relief expects to send to China, during 1943, a total of eight and one-half millions.

In spite of the cessation of the campaign during the past six months, due to the National War Fund's impending campaign this fall, United China Relief has received in gifts $3,098,220.97, which is only $37,982 less than the amount received during the last six months of the 1942 campaign for United China Relief.

Private Aviation Is Subject of Talk at Rotary Luncheon

C. W. Foote, Jr. talked at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Tuesday on private aviation as compared with military aviation.

The Community Service Committee of the club reported on its work, and called upon the City Commission and all citizens to join in a weed cutting campaign. All citizens were asked to clean up and use care in handling garbage due to the fact that flies are the cause of spreading infantile paralysis.

Mr. Foote is working on his degree at West Texas State and is taking flying at the Canyon Aviation Service. He went into the qualification and expenses of private aviation as compared to the cost of military aviation. There are many rules of safety, and when a ship violates one of these it is subject to seizure by the government.

Mr. Foote discussed weather reports, navigation, and machines. American engines are the best in the world, which accounts for the success of our aviation. There is no better fuel to be found than is available for American aviators.

"It is not impossible to fly; just a lot of hard work," concluded Mr. Foote, after relating his experiences.

Newton Harrell was introduced as an honorary member of the club.

Visitors were: T. A. Black, O. W. Binefore, of Canyon; E. L. Mallin of Adrian; Joe Powers of Lubbock; Claude Dillehay of Vernon; Capt. W. E. Walton of Santa Ana, Calif.

Radar Discussed At Lions Club Luncheon Tuesday

Radar has been known for twenty years, but it takes twenty years to put a worthwhile invention to practical use. Dr. Kemp, instructor at West Texas State, thinks that it is necessary to have some deaths among the older men if progress is to be obtained. He says that it is a most difficult thing for a man to think along new lines.

Dr. Kemp thinks that Radar is a very simple thing. The short waves which are used in Radar travel with the speed of light, 186,000 miles per second. By means of these waves, enemy planes can be located exactly at a distance of fifty miles and it is possible to tell almost exactly how many there are. Radar can determine the altitude of a plane to within three feet of the ground. It thus helps in precision bombing.

According to Dr. Kemp, Galileo and Bacon gave us the first step in freedom of thought, the freedom for which we are fighting today. He believes that freedom from fear and freedom of thought are the most important of the freedoms.

Guests at the luncheon were Cadet Robert Cannell from Rockford, Illinois; Lion John Bishop from Spearman; Ted Alger from Bellflower, Calif.; and Guy Tyrrell from Long Beach, Calif.

C. D. Richards of Arlington will speak at the luncheon next week.

Canning Chicken for Winter's Supply

Mrs. George Ross, a member of the Western Avenue H. D. Club has been canning chicken for her winter's food supply. Three two-year-old hens were canned.

C enamel cans are best when packing chickens raw. The enameled can will take care of the sulphur in the protein.

The bones were removed from the thigh, leg, breast and large joints of the wing—1/2 teaspoon of salt was put into the containers first for number 2 cans. The raw meat was packed tightly, leaving about 1/2 inch above the rim of the can. After steaming, the meat was pressed down below the rim of the can.

The meat was steamed before sealing.

The water was 2 inches below the top of the can and boiled very slowly. The pet cock was left open and opposite lugs were fastened. The number 2 cans were steamed 60 minutes.

The cans were taken out of the cooker one at a time, the meat pressed down below the juices and the cans were sealed immediately, leaving 1/4-inch of head space.

The number 2 cans were processed 50 minutes at 17 lbs. pressure.

The bones and bony pieces were cooked with 1 cup of water per chicken. The broth was sealed and processed 25 minutes at 17 lbs. pressure.

Mrs. Ross had four cans of chicken and two cans of broth when finished.

Men Discharged From Army Forces Receive Insignia

A Kirkland woman's suggestion to President Roosevelt that honorably discharged service men be given some insignia to designate their status has become a reality.

Last March, Mrs. Maude Williamson of Kirkland wrote to the president making the suggestion after her son, Tyrus K. Williamson of Lubbock, had received a medical discharge from the army and had been embarrassed at remarks made regarding his patriotism by persons who did not know he had been in the service.

Her letter was turned over to the adjutant general's department and at that time she was notified that her suggestion had been accepted.

The insignia are now being made and will be issued to all persons in the armed services who received honorable discharges. It will be a lapel button, made of plastic and gold plated.

Misses Lila and Joanne Peterson of Higgins have been visiting with Mrs. Milton Morris and Kathryn Ann.

"Nothing short of a mighty flood of national resistance, composed of the resistance of millions of individuals, will turn this revolutionary tide into constructive channels.

"Don't expect the sociologist, the policeman and the jurist to do this job for you. Theirs is only part of the job, and they are definitely limited to the support which you give them. Don't expect your schools, churches, social and fraternal organizations, press and radio to bear the burden. They, too, are limited by the support which you give them.

"If this ugly future becomes a reality, it will be because you, the people, either wanted it to be so or negligently failed to prevent its being so.

The decision is yours to make. If you would become a part of this flood of national resistance to chaos, let this be your challenge: first see that your own house is in order, and then go forth to be your brother's keeper."

Garrison was one of four nationally known authorities who spoke on a panel discussion of "Effects of War on Social Standards," in connection with the war conference here of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. The other speakers were Chief Inspector John O'Connell of the New York City Police Department, Judge Camille Kelley, famous woman judge of the Memphis, Tenn., Juvenile Court, and Charles P. Taft, head of the Community War Services.

Dan Cabe of Abilene is visiting here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cabe and other friends.

Son of a General At Training Center

A lone bomber winged its way over the enemy territory of Germany. It was attacked by the axis planes and in the ensuing battle, the tail gunner was killed. The post was immediately taken over by another person, however, and the enemy fighters were driven off. The soldier who took over the gunner's position and was instrumental in driving off the enemy planes was General Lyons, of the Army Air Forces. Due to exposure received in the combat, General Lyons, contracted pneumonia and later passed away at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Here at West Texas State, in the College Training Detachment, is AC S. William Lyons, son of the late General Lyons. Bill is a quiet, studious, neat soldier whose chief aim right now is to get in the cockpit of a P-47 and catch a few axis planes in his gun-sights.

A S Lyons was born on June 16, 1924, at Moscow, Idaho. He attended the Augusta Military Academy from 1937 to 1942. He then attended college for approximately three months before deciding to join the Army.

On December 14, 1942, he joined the Army Air Force and is now on his way to win his "wings" in the same branch of service as had his father before him.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Let's Quit Kidding Ourselves

What do you mean—you can't afford to buy War Bonds? You don't donate a cent—you get paid for lending. There's no sacrifice to it—

UNLESS you think riding the bus (instead of your car) compares with wading a river with Jap machine-gun bullets spattering about your knees.

UNLESS you think sitting on your front porch (instead of going on a party) compares with spending the night in a mud-upholstered fox-hole.

UNLESS you think eating fried chicken (instead of a T-bone steak) compares with surviving—and fighting—on mule meat and lizards.

UNLESS you are spending less and saving more compares with risking your life for your country.

Nobody thinks so. That's why, if anybody's been buying a Bond now and then and thought he was doing his part, he's been kidding himself. It means at least 10 per cent of our pay in War Bonds every pay day.

"Farmer Blunt," asked the college student who was working as a farmhand during his vacation, "do you think I'll ever become a successful agriculturist?"

"We-e-ll, you may," doubtfully replied Farmer Blunt, "but you'll never be a farmer!"—Country Gentleman.

Letter of Interest

Editor's Note:

Presentation of interesting letters will appear on this page from time to time. Contribution of letters may be turned in to any of the staff members. All contributions will be considered.

The following letter is from another of our College Training Detachments:

Dear "Ole" Tom:

You are now on your way to becoming an officer. Since you will have a much greater responsibility than you have ever had before, let me, as your brother, put in my two cents worth before the ordeal begins.

It will be impossible to make all your men like you, but you can make almost all of them like you, and that is one of the most important things an officer must do.

The most popular officers we have here are the men who will sit down with an enlisted man and teach him anything he happens to want to learn about field artillery and survey. Never feel as though your time is wasted in doing such things because even though some of the men are incapable of learning, you will be giving the men who are capable concrete proof that you are the one who will help them.

Never try to impress the men with your rank (they know you have it). Some of our best officers come into the CP at night and carry on friendly conversation with enlisted personnel for hours at a time, and have no trouble maintaining discipline and respect the next day, or even that night if the occasion calls for it.

You must know your job because you will have to take an examination every day and your grades will not be put down, but will be carried around in the hearts and minds of your subordinates throughout your entire career.

I know you do not need my advice, Tom, because your past record as far as I can see has been exemplary, but I am writing this because all of your friends and companions from now on will be officers, and enlisted men are bound to lose their individual personalities and become simply a class in your eyes. So, never forget that your own brother is serving as a private in the field artillery.

Love,
BILL

Dear Mom:

Have a moment or two before lights out to drop you a line. Should have gone to bed, but I want to tell you a little of my past week's activities while it is still fresh in my mind.

Well, I'm really in the midst of intricacies of the school studies now. And, Mom, let me tell you it isn't any push-over. Why, even the ex-college students are studying harder than ever before. I can see now why alertness and clear thinking is being stressed by the Cadet Training Officials. You really have to be on the ball.

I heard a little joke about the Cadet College studies and how condensed they are; and let me tell you, Mom, it is just about the truth. The story goes like this: An Aviation Student dropped his pencil in Physics class one day. Well, by the time that he had bent over and retrieved the pencil, a whole month of Physics had passed by him.

As I have written you before, the teachers are really swell. They go out of their way to help us. I've learned most of their names and what they teach. Miss Moore teaches English. Mr. Beinfuhr teaches geography. Dr. Barlow teaches history. Mr. Briggs teaches mathematics. Mr. Gilmore teaches Physics lecture classes. Mr. and Mrs. McCarter teach Physics Lab. and coaches Miller and Nicklaus teach us our physical training. They deserve a lot of credit for the time and effort that they are putting in, trying to teach us all that is possible.

This week was my first week-end off the Military Reservation, Mom.

Just like I promised you, I was a good boy. My week-end was mostly an observation tour. Souvenirs are tired feet, sore eyes, and an aching body.

My tired feet came from walking all over Canyon. I walked from one end of the town to the other and then back again. Not once, but a dozen times. Honestly, Mom, come to think of it, the walking I did was equivalent to that done in one week of Physical Training. I wasn't alone tho; as I had two pals with me. During our walk, someone would casually suggest that we stop in one of the drug stores for a soda. After consuming the cool sodas, we would wander on in search of new sights. By the end of the afternoon, our feet grew weary, so we decided our beds would be a nice place to stop and rest.

Sunday morning, at the dreadful hour of 6:30, Otto awakened me and we were up with a start, and after a wonderful breakfast at the College Cafeteria, we wandered around the campus and the surrounding area. Then Don, my other buddy, suggested we go horse-back riding. Otto was enthused, while I was agreeable, but a little dubious. We found the horses and started on a new adventure, which, I mean was new to me. I was enjoying myself immensely, until my horse stepped up his gait. Then something drastic happened; I bounced so much that I looked like an automatic jack-in-the-box. I took a terrific pounding, as I was always on the down-grade when the horse was on the up-grade. I must have been a comical sight as Miss Burton, the College assistant dietitian was standing on her front porch as we passed, and was laughing mirthfully.

That night, we decided to do something less strenuous, so we rambled on until we came to the Olympic theatre. The picture, "Bombardier" was showing, and in it we learned very much about the training the boys receive while in bombardier school. It gave us a great conception of the work the "Bombardiers" have before them.

After the picture, we set out for our quarters as Open Post was soon to terminate. So here I am, Mom, tired and sleepy, and getting ready for another tough week of training. I'll write again next week.

Loads of love, from your son,
DUSTY.

Flights 5 & 6

By Smitty

We are the rookies of the 350th. Officially we are known as Squadron "S." "S" stands for strictly on the ball. That is us, and to my knowledge, never has a quieter, more conscientious group of students entered West Texas.

Our Student Officers have been chosen and are really a swell group of leaders. Mister Jack Wilbourn was chosen as Squadron Commander. The Flight Lieutenants are "Tex" Wyatt and Bill Lasher; and the element corporals are: Macintosh, Weathersby, and Quirk for Flight 5; Lewis, Lyons, and Komash for Flight 6.

Captain Wilbourn has a good joke on Mr. Chas. McDonald. It seems that Jack was strolling down the street last week-end with his girl friend, when he met Mr. McDonald. McDonald saluted, spoke and passed on down the street. "What was that fellow, Jack?" asked his puzzled girl friend. "Oh, don't let that drawl fool you," replied Jack. "He is just a white boy like me, only he is from Alabama."

Has anyone a baby crib they can spare? Seeing as how Vic Ossimitz can't sleep in his bunk without falling out, it seems that a baby crib would be just the thing.

Attention to visiting firemen! A man after your own heart is Mr. George Parker. For every night when he goes to bed, he takes a lighted match and searches every inch of his bed for bugs and etc.

Last Sunday night Jim Spence, known as "Lights Out" or "Turn off that radio" boy had a sudden change of attitude. He obtained a two hour pass to visit his wife and he tried to keep awake by playing the radio. All he succeeded in

One day, as we were preparing for an inevitable inspection, someone said to Mr. Pauly, "Could your cap come down closer to your eyes, you've a high forehead." Al looked at the fellow menacingly and growled, "Are you trying to insinuate that I am getting bald?" That's all for now. See you next week.

In Chicago, Tomasco Richardo, Italian, was being examined as an applicant for citizenship papers.

"Can you tell me how many states there are in the Union?" the examining judge asked.

"Mr. Judge," answered Ricardo. "I talk to you. You know your business. I know my business. You ask me how many states in Union. I ask you how many bananas in a bunch?"

Administrative Staffs of Texas Colleges Held Meeting in Dallas

Pres. Hill and Deans Jarrett, Shirley, Meyer and Knott Attend

The Reorganization Plan of West Texas State was one of the principal subjects discussed at the opening meeting of the presidents and deans of the West Texas State Teachers Colleges in Dallas last Tuesday, August 5.

The plan adopted here at West Texas State, or the so-called Canyon plan, divided the college into three schools—the School of Education, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Liberal Arts. The other feature of the Canyon plan is the division of the college into three levels—the Lower Division of which Dr. A. K. Knott is dean, the Upper Division, of which Registrar D. A. Shirley is dean, and the Graduate Division of which Dr. A. M. Meyer is dean.

The San Marcos proposals were also discussed.

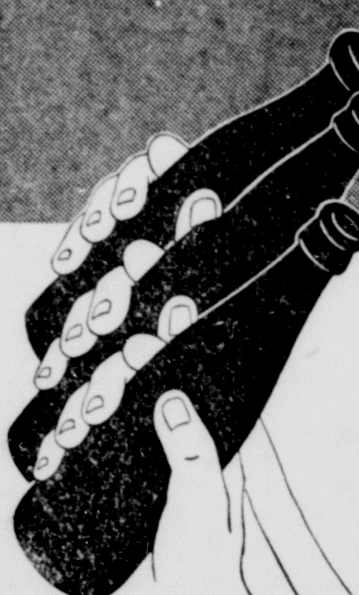

On Wednesday, the place of colleges in the rehabilitation program now and after the war was discussed. Special speakers before the conference were Dr. A. Rubin, Chief, Veterans Bureau, and Mr. Mortimer Woodson, Vocational Rehabilitation Officer, both from Waco, Texas, and Mr. Roy Whisenand, in charge of the rehabilitation of civilians, from Fort Worth. Waco is the center for the officers in charge of the rehabilitation of service men in South Texas. Canyon is in the group of 26 North Texas counties which has Muskogee, Oklahoma as their center. Registrar Shirley is head of the committee in charge of the rehabilitation committee at West Texas State.

The second half of the program was a discussion of the personnel and guidance work carried on by the various colleges, which is included in the work of Dr. Knott and the Freshman guidance committees. Some of the questions discussed in this field were, "What is the college's responsibility for failing students? Should a personnel director be permitted to arrange special curricula for special students in terms of individual interests and needs?"

The Board of Regents held their regular meeting Wednesday to pass upon suggestions by the college presidents, and to elect faculty members for another year.

Because you lack a noble and successful past, is no real reason why you should lack a noble and successful future.—Thomas Dreier.

The Highland H. D. Club held their picnic at Elwood Park Sunday evening. The Roark, Baker, Fulton, Mitchell, Broadus and Fuqua families attended.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fulton and Joan, and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell went to Canyon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuqua called on Jim Goudy at the home of his sisters in Amarillo Sunday evening. Mr. Goudy has been in the hospital the past month.

Dr. and Mrs. Roland of Los Angeles, who have been visiting her sister in Snyder, are back at the home of Mrs. Jim Goudy.

Mrs. T. C. Jones shopped and visited in Amarillo Thursday. Mary Lou Jones has been staying with Mrs. Brooks at Bushland.

SHREWD

Three managers of chicken farms in a foreign country, so the story goes, were being questioned by an investigator.

"What do you feed your chickens?" he asked the first.

"Corn."

"You're under arrest! We use corn to feed people!"

The second overheard this conversation, and tried to play safe.

"What do you feed your chickens?" came the question.

"Corn husks."

"You're under arrest! We use the husks to make cloth. And you?" he asked, turning to the third man.

"I give my chickens the money and tell them to go and buy their own food."

"Well, what did you do last night?"

"Just a quiet little evening alone with a book."

"Tsk, tsk! I'm afraid that's going to happen to me some night, too."

Classes Begin Sept. 23 for Fall Session

High school seniors who plan to attend West Texas State next fall are asked to report Tuesday, Sept. 21 in order to take Freshman and English Placement Test at 9:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. although they will not register until Wednesday. Sophomores and Upperclassmen will register Tuesday.

Classes will begin Thursday, Sept. 23 and the first assembly program will be presented Saturday, the 25th, although the first general assembly will be held the following Tuesday which will also be the last day for changing programs.

Girls who wish to work to secure part of their college expenses are asked to write or see Mrs. Geraldine Green, Dean of Women. There are several jobs available at the present time.

Boys who wish to work should write or see Mitchell Jones.

Either Mrs. Green or Mr. Jones will help students obtain rooms and board. Boys may stay at Prairie Lodge and at approved private homes, and girls may stay at one of the dormitories or at an approved private home.

A room reservation fee of five dollars is required at any of the dormitories or Prairie Lodge.

THERE'S ALWAYS A WAY

A man named Goldstein got a job as conductor on the Spring Street trolley line which averages $9 to $10 per day in fares.

After two trips, Goldstein turned in to the superintendent $19.85. The superintendent said to Goldstein: "You're a wonder, Goldstein! How in the world did you do it?"

"Boss, I'll tell you," said Goldstein. "Business was so bad on Spring Street, I took the car up Broadway."

Bill: So you're raising goats? How are you getting along?

George: Fine. I haven't gotten much milk, but the goats have butted my mother-in-law several times.

WREN Lorraine Spoors takes time out at her Roosevelt Field, L. I., quarters to hang a few undies on the line to dry. She's one of a group of 25 replacing British Navy men on this side of the Atlantic.

"Speaking of Old Families," said the aristocrat of the party, "one of my ancestors was present at the signing of the Magna Charta."

"And one of mine," said Isadore Cohen, "was present at the signing of the Ten Commandments."

There'll always be a U.S.A. and places you long to drive to!

Just as sure as Victory comes you'll long to ease this war strain by going places...wondrous Yellowstone again...sea-swept Cape Cod...the vivid Southwest...even Alaska perhaps. Your boy...your hero out of Africa or Iceland—or cloudland—can take spells at the wheel with you. The mileage your car is kept from making now, it can make then—but not if today's restricted mileage and speed sacrifice your engine to acid!

Acid that's greedy for metal is left over after combustion ceases in any engine. When you used to start often, and make long runs, thoroughly heating the engine, the acid mostly took leave. It wasn't the steady danger that it is today, with car usage restricted. But you can tame rampant acid by OIL-PLATING your little-used engine with Conoco Nth motor oil. Patented Conoco Nth brings your engine this oil's "magnet-like" effect—created synthetically. And that's how OIL-PLATING is held close against steepest inner engine surfaces, much like any good anti-corrosive plating...not all promptly draining down to the crankcase...not leaving fine surfaces all unfortified...hence not allowing free play to acid.

New engine parts—new cars, too—would still be scarce if the Axis folded this minute. Do your best to assure today's vital trips as well as tomorrow's richly-earned tour, by OIL-PLATING your engine now. Get Conoco Nth at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
